The President announced that agreement had been reached on the provisional agenda for UNCTAD VIII, following the consultation undertaken by the Secretary-General of UNCTAD as mandated in Board resolution 377 (XXXVI). He further stated the understanding that, in addition to the Plenary, there would be only one sessional committee, and that there would be not more than three simultaneous official meetings.

The Board approved the addition of a substantive item to the provisional agenda (to be circulated in TD/B/L.911) and the related understandings.

On the question of venue and dates, the President informed the Board that he was hopeful of being in a position to announce the decision of the Latin American Group at an early stage. The President was authorized, depending on the outcome on the two questions, and subject to the necessary consultations, to report directly to the General Assembly the consensus reached, without the need for a resumed session of the Board.

In this connection, the President read out the text of an understanding concerning future treatment by the Board of relevant trade issues pertaining to the countries of Eastern Europe. The Board endorsed that understanding and decided that it should become an official decision of the Board (to be included under "Other decisions of the Board").

In accordance with its past practice, the Board authorized the Secretary-General of UNCTAD, in consultation with the President, to adjust and complete the provisional agenda in the light of developments. This arrangement was on the understanding that any amendments or additions would be subject to consultations with the representatives of regional groups within the framework of the consultative machinery established by Board decision 143 (XVI) and Board resolution 231 (XXII). The Board also requested the Secretary-General of UNCTAD to consult delegations regarding the organization of work of the session and to circulate his suggestions thereon.

Review of the calendar of meetings [10 (f)] and

Administrative and financial implications of the actions of the Board [10 (g)]

The Board approved the calendar of meetings for the remainder of 1990 as contained in TD/B/L.901. It took note of the draft calendar of meetings for 1991 and the tentative schedules for 1992 and 1993 contained in TD/B/L.901 and Add. 1, on the understanding that these would be finalized in the light of the timing of UNCTAD VIII, and the preparatory processes thereto, via the regular consultation procedures of the Secretary-General of UNCTAD.
